Transitioning Youth Statistics

Twice as many youths transition out of the Covington Region than the average of all of the other 8 regions in the State.

- Transitioning youth in Covington Region – 30-35
- Transitioning youth statewide – 150-155

JAMES STORE HOUSE ™ -LOUISIANA-

Transitioning Foster Youth

Approximately 25 to 31 youth transition out of foster care each year in the Covington region

20% are instantly homeless and 25% will become homeless

Less than half have graduated from high school or unable to pass the HiSET

Less than 3% earn a college degree at any point in their life

Over 70% of all female foster youth will become pregnant by the age of 21

More than 80% are unable to financially support themselves

More likely to have been incarcerated at some point

Have twice the rate of post-traumatic disorder than U.S. combat veterans

More likely to be victims of human sex trafficking

The Open Table Model

- Community & Relationship
- 12 Month Commitment meeting 1 hour/week
- Chairs
- 6-8 Table Members for Individual Table 10-12 Table Members for Family Table
- Table Member Training
- Life Plan
- After Care Plan

© The

Evidence Informed

VanDenBerg, 2016, continued:

85%: Have better job and/or in a college or a technical school

85%: Have skills needed to get through problems and crises better than before

95%: Currently self-supporting or confident that they will be self-supporting in the future

© The Open Table, Inc., 2018

Tables in Process by DCFS Regions

JAMES STORE HOUSE -LOUISIANA-

OPEN TABLE
RELATIONSHIP TRANSFORMS COMMUNITIES.

James Storehouse is having greater success and impact with Open Table than the entire state, combined.

Kim Bigler

Executive Director/Founder

www.jslouisiana.org

https://www.facebook.com/JamesStorehouseLouisiana/

https://www.instagram.com/jamesstorehouselouisiana/

985-888-6100

kim@jslouisiana.org

JAMES STORE HOUSE ™ -LOUISIANA-